Kimley-Horn Expands Presence in Northeast with White Plains Office

White Plains, NY – April 20, 2017 – Kimley-Horn of New York has opened a full-service office in White Plains to better serve Tri-State area clients. The office offers site civil, transportation, environmental planning, and landscape architecture/land planning services. This is Kimley-Horn's fifth location in the Northeast—adding to its presence in New York City, NY; Princeton, NJ; Philadelphia, PA; and Pittsburgh, PA.

Kimley-Horn welcomes seven new team members as part of the office's opening: Mike Junghans, P.E.; David Schiff, AICP, PP; John Canning, P.E.; Jason Cheong, P.E.; Andrea Connell, LEED Green Associate; Chris Orofino, P.E.; and David Rosenberg, E.I.T. The team offers more than 100 years of collective professional experience on a diverse range of projects and embraces Kimley-Horn's commitment to bring unique and innovative solutions to clients.

"I'm excited to partner with some of the most respected and creative land development professionals in the Hudson Valley," says Kevin Van Hise, PLA, an owner at Kimley-Horn. "Their local expertise coupled with Kimley-Horn's national client practice will add value for our clients and help the firm grow in a strategic market." A leader of Kimley-Horn's landscape architecture/land planning practice, Kevin will transition from the firm's Manhattan location to White Plains and help lead the office's future growth.

Several projects are already underway with the White Plains team—including a one million square foot research and development campus in Greenburgh; a mixed-used development in Harrison; a 600+ unit multi-family development in White Plains; a commercial development in Long Island; and a new location for a Wegmans in Harrison. The White Plains office is located at 1 North Lexington Avenue, Suite 1575, White Plains, NY 10601 and its phone number is 914-368-9200.

Kimley-Horn of New York is affiliated with Kimley-Horn and Associates, a 2,800-person firm with more than 75 offices nationwide.
